SARATOGA'S MEETING ENDS

OLAMBALA EASILY DEFEATS WINTERGREEN IN THE HISTORIC SARATOGA CUP.

Chickasaw Triumphs in the Grand Union Hotel Stakes-Almost a Record Attendance

Views the Closing Day's Sport.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 28.—R. T. Wilson's Olambala, quoted at odds-on, won the Saratoga Capoday with ridiculous case in the track record time of 2:58, which mark was created by Africander August 22, 1903. There were only four starters in tachistoric stake, Olambala, Whitergreen, Plus and Needles and Effendl. While not actually the leader of controlled the race from the start and that the victor controlled the race from the start and that the total start was apparent that the victor controlled the race from the start and that the start start was furious, after which Olambala gailoned to the front and thereafter held sway under a pull, the start was premaker on sufferance only for the first six furious, after which Olambala gailoned to the front and thereafter held sway under a pull, the start was splended achievement and horsemen voiced ridden ont for a record. Experts declared after the race that adequately paced he could have run two or even three seconds faster than the time displayed. Wintergreen, palpably unfit to go the distance, finished a distant second in a courageous, high-class effort. The Kentucky Derby victor appeared big and high alongside his finely drawn and rangy opponent and their dissimilarity in type was very pronounced.

Wintergreen ran a good race for a mile, or as far as his condition permitted him to go, and today's effort was only a good qualifying work-out for the long-distance races scheduled on the metropolitan tracks later on and in which he promises to be a composition of the condition provided the start of the provided control of the dissipation of the lasignificant sum of $120. This work of the particular junction of the provided control of the lasignificant sum of $120. This work of the fast of the particular junction of the provided control o ing the four weeks of the meeting which closed today.

"A prominent public man, a close friend of Governor Hughes, has written me a letter complimenting me on the way I have handled the situation," remarked Mr. Bradley.

The weather the past week has been perfect and the sport of such good class that the attendance on the last Saturday of the Saratoga Association's long-drawn-out meeting proved a record-breaking one.

J. W. Colt acquired Pretty Michal recently and the mare ran in his name and colors in today's steeplechase.

Thomas Clyde acted as one of the stewards while the jumping race was being run.

Candleberry was shipped to New York tonight. The other Montpelier Stable's horses leave Sunday, W. G. Yanke of California was the winning plunger developed at Saratoga, It is said that Yanke won $50,000 in backing a number of long shots.

NO EXTENSION OF JOLIET RACING.

Sheriff of Will County Takes Steps to Prevent Betting on Chicago Day.

Joliet, III., August 28.—Five thousand or more persons, including a large delegation of Chicagonus, hungry for a taste of the real thing in the way of racing, assembled at Ingalls Park this afternoon in the hope that they might inducise in their favore pastime with all its alluring accompaniments from the positive were doomed to disappointment. The racing itself was carried out as per schedule, but Sheriff Williams of Will County was on hand with fifty deputies to see that the Illinois law relating to bookmaking and betting was observed. Sheriff Williams made no concealment of his purpose and the word was sassed before the racing began that he would tolerate no hooking or betting. The sheriff satilitude was well illustrated by a statement which he made in reply to the pleading of a leading resident of Joliet that he lifted all little just for this special occasion. The sheriff replied: "I hope the time will come when we may legally have racing with betting in Illinois, for I enjoy the sport as well as the new one, but you know what the law is, and he would make an exception in favor of oral betting strictly between individuals, the sheriff replied that such transactions would better be carried on out of the sight of his deputies if the participants desired to keep out of trouble. The sheriff's whole hearing indicated that he meant exactly what he said.

Announcement of the sheriff's mylelding attitude the professional layers of odds who had been operating at lugalls Park carlier in the week from continuing to ply their vocation, and there was practically an absence of betting. Towards the latter part of the afternoon, several venturesome persons indiscrectly disobeyed the sheriff's mandate and were taken into custody. They probably will be required to pay fines of $50 each as were three men from Defroit win ower arrested for laying bets yes.

The attitude of the sheriff effectively put a quietus upon the tentative plans for extending the meeting into the coming week. The management of the track made formal announcement that the meeting would close with the running of today's races. That the racing was enjoyed by many notwith standing the absence of the betting adjunct that adds piquately to the pleasure derived from it, was evident. Much genuine enthusiasm was aroused by several of the contests and some old-time patrons of the sport were heard to remark that it certainly metrical J. H. Houghton, Malediction, Gilvedear

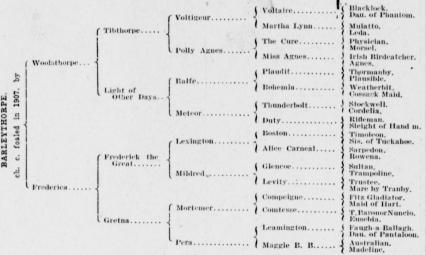

ONE OF THE FUTURITY CANDIDATES HELD TO BE DANGEROUS

JAMES GAFFNEY'S CH. C, 2, BARLEYTHORPE, BY WOOLSTHORPE-FREDERICA.

Barleythorpe is one of the two-year-old celebrities of the year partly by skillful advertising and partly by his own demonstration of the fact that he is well gifted with that prime requisite in the makeup of a race horse, speed. His racing career does not extend far. His first start was in a purse race at Louisville May 15, in which he finished last in field of seven. The Fad winning, with Calash second and Paul Davis third. He showed speed, but was short. He ran again at Louisville May 19, and finished third to Prince Imperial and Fereno in a purse race at four and one-half furlongs in 53g. He led to the stretch and thed. He was not started again until August 2 at Saratoga. Here he came out in a five and a batt furlongs dash file Dugan and nine others in 1:07g. The manner of his running stamped him as far above the average and this he confirmed when he ran third to Rocky O'Brien and Sweep in the Hopeful Stakes August 14. There he showed brillhant speed in making the running until half way down the homestretch and, after giving way, held on resolutely and outstayed Candleberry for third money. His display there led to his passing to a new owner, James Gaffuey purchasing him from H. M. Zlegler for $12,000 and a contingency in the Futurity, Naturally, his new owner hopes to win that rich race with him and there are men of experience who think he will do so. No long waiting is now required to determine the matter. In the meantine Barleythorpe's record and pedigree are as follows: Year. Age, Sts. 1st. 2d. 3d. Unp. Won. 1909 2 4 1 0 2 1 $1,440

FOURTEEN NAMED TO START IN THE FUTURITY TOMORROW AFTERNOON

All speculation as to the Futurity winner of 1909 will cease tomorrow. The finishing touches of training have been put on all the candidates, owners have declared their intended starters and, with fourteen named to go, only the running of the richest American race for two year-olds remains to be disposed of, Rocky O'Brien, Sweep and Barleythorpe will fight their Hopeful Stakes buttle over again at a change of weights favorable to Sweep and against the chances of the other two. Recently, by an error of calculation, it was stated in baily Racing Form that Sweep and Rocky O'Brien would carried to the Rocky O'Brien carries eight pounds more than the Hopeful Brocky O'Brien carries eight pounds more than the Rocky O'Brien carries eight pounds more than the starter of the race that five of its probable contestants are maloens. Buffalo, N. Y., August 28.—John W. Jockey Flynn was reported in much improved condition and is considered out of danger.

The one-time fast sprinter, Security, had to be destroyed as a result of coming into collision with a watering cart. He was being given a trial through the field when he unseated his rider at one of the Jumps, jumped the track fence and crashed into the watering cart, breaking his leg.

News was received today of the sudden death of John Gemeinhardt (Long John), a well-known bookmaker in these parts. He died of heart disease in his home at Detroit.

TORONTO HANDBOOK MEN GO FREE.

Toronto, Ont., August 28.—It looks as if the most important result of the raids that the police of this city have been making on the handbook men will be to enormously increase street betting. Out of five charges tried in the police court yesterday four were dismissed, wholly or in part, because the bets had been made on the street.

The only conviction obtained was in the case of Abe Levinsky, who keeps a poolroom and cigar store at 273 Queen street, west. Levinsky gave notice of appeal. The control of the description of 200 deep and the control of the c

The charges against John and Fred Allison were dismissed on the ground that the bets they took were on the street instead of in their store. Detectives Hart and Twitty of the Thiel Detective Agency had both placed bets with the men, but the judge said: "In the face of decisions of the higher courts this case will have to be dismissed. I can do nothing, for it has been held that the street is not a place." All of the bets were on races run in the United States.

STAKES TO BE RUN THIS WEEK.

The successful Saratoga meeting having come to a close, eastern racing now reverts to the New York tracks, with the first of the autumn meetings set to begin at Sheepshead Bay tomorrow. The occasion will be signalized by the running of the twenty-second Futurity, with the Fall Handicap thrown in as an additional attraction. The probable starters are named in today's entry lists. Tuesday's stake race is the Turf Stakes, at a mile and a quarter, over the turf course. It is a selling race, with such useful racers as Hill Top, Nadzu, Belleview, Sir John Johnson, Beauelere, Arasee, Etherial, Firestone, Monigomery, Mellowmint, Pins and Needles, Beaucoup, Wise Mason, Bonnie Kelso and Superstition among its nominations, The Flying Stakes, at six and a half furlongs, is set for Wednesday. Such fast sprinters as Field Mouse, Harrigan, Tim Pippin, Mary Davis, Fitz Herbert, Rose Queen, Wise Mason, Prince Gal, Fashion Plate, Wintergreen, Etherial and Fayette are eligible to furnish a capital contest.

HILDRETH LIKELY TO USE JOCKEY DUGAN

Saratoga, N. Y., August 28.—The indefinite suspension of jockey Vincent Powers imposes a handicap upon Sam Hildreth, who got rid of Guy Burns and fook a contract on Powers as soon as he appeared in the east. Powers rode Fitz Herbert for Hildreth in the Lawrence Realization with consummate skill, and if the stewards of the Jockey Clubhad not indefinitely continued the suspension imposed by the stewards of the Saratoga meeting, he would have ridden Fitz Herbert in his races at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend and Belmont Park. The suspended jockey is at Hildreth's house at Sheepshead Bay new.

jockey is at Hidreth's house at Sheepshead Bay new,
What an indefinite suspension may mean in the case of Powers it is difficult to say. But when the stewards of the Jockey Club act in such a case, they generally think they have reason for acting and do not quickly relent.

Jockey Eddie Dugan will probably do much of Hiddreth's riding this fall. Dugan is under contract or ride for the stable of August Belmont, but Mr. Belmont has few horses with dates that conflict with those of the horses of the Hiddreth stable. Half Sovereign and Field Mouse are good fillies, but they will hardly race against Fitz Herbert, Restigouche, King James and Uncle.

HISTORY OF THE FUTURITY STAKES

By far the most valuable of American races for two-year-olds is the Futurity. Not many years back it was the richest race of the kind of the world, but its value for one reason and another has declined from that of its early history. But it

ELIGIBLES TO THE MATRON STAKES

In respect to value, the Matron Stakes will be the leading event of the Westchester Racing Association's fall meeting at Belmont Park. It is for two-year-olds, with $10,000 added, and, under its conditions, is divided into two parts and two races, one for colts and one for fillies, the money added being also divided so that $5,000 goes to each race. Its original nomination in 1906 was of 471 mares, of which 163 produced tolts and 174 fillies. Declarations have so reduced these numbers that there are now but twenty-six eligibles in the colts' race and twenty-one in the fillies' race. The final declarations were made Angust 15.

There is one striking feature of the eligible lists, and that is that the powerful Keene stable is not represented in either race. Last year Mr. Keene won both with Helmet and Maskette and won the colts' race in 1907 with Colin and in 1906 with Ballot. This year the other owners have the two lows:

STARTER DUKE MURDERED AT HENDERSON

Henderson, Ky., August 28.—William Ball, owner of several horses that were raced at the meeting which has been in progress in this city, shot and killed Ed Duke, the official starter, last night. He ired four shots, all taking effect, the last three being pumped into Duke's body as it lay prostrate in the street. It is rumored that the cause of the murder was Duke's accusation that Ball was the cause of warrants being served upon the promoters of the racing here. Duke is a native of Los Angeles, Cal., and has a wife in Denver. Buke died within the minutes after he was slower. But at once surface murder was buke's accusation that Ball was the cause of the racing here. Once the last of the same was a formerly mayor of this city, and has for some years past been interested in racing. He is the owner of Sagapanak and other horses, and was one of the horsemen that sued the racing association yesterday for a 803 purse that he had won during the ill-starred meeting here.

The meeting of the Albuqueroue Fair and Racing and other horses, and was one of the horsement that such the racing association yesterday for a $65 purse that he had won during the ill-starred meeting here.

The meeting of the Albanuerque Fair and Racing Asociation came to a sudden close under these circumstances. William Rabb of Denver, Col., carried the meeting through Wednesday, the fourth day, and paid the purses for that day, but declined to bay any back debts contracted under the management of J. G. Bussey, secretary and general manager, who left Henderson Tuesday might. Rabb was apparently backing the meet, but says that he is not the Albuquerque Fair and Racing Association. John O. Hublein, manager of the band, the swore out warrants against Judge E. H. Canfield, racing secretary; Sidney Courtin, secretary; J. G. Bussey and William Rabb, charging them with operating a race meeting without first obtaining license from the State Racing Commission, which is required by the Kentucky statutes. All were arrested except Bussey.

They all gave bond. Rabb put up a cash bond of $1,000. Then snits began to be filed in the circuit clerk's office praying for attachments and garnishees in each case. The Ohio Valley Bank and Trust Company Were summoned to answer as garnishees, and the $1,000 cash bond was attached in the hands of Sheriff Ed Melton in each of the suits filed. William Rabb was made a defining businessed on thus far in the Circuit Court foot up $750, with a number of smaller claims in magistrates' courts. On August 17 articles neoreorating the Albuquerque Fair and Racing Association were recorded in the county clerk's office. The capital stock is $500 and the incorporators are 4, 6, 8 sussey; four shares of $50 each; E. K. Held of Henderson, three shares of $50 each; E. K. KENTUCKY BREEDERS NEED ORGANIZATION

When we urged the organization of the thoroughbred breeders of the blue grass some four years ago, focusion the necessity for such an organization to fossibility for such an organization to fossibility for such an organization to fossible legislation to racing, we found it impossible to persuade the thoroughbred breeders to organization and co-operation they could better the condition of racing y lighting the crooks and harpies who had gotten control of many tracks and the gambiers and poolroom keepers who made of racing a business, and a crooked business at that, instead of a sport; prevent harm being done by the good men unfamiliar with the sport, and hostile to it because of the controls and with the sport, and hostile to it because of the controls ander which it was being conductoranization been perfected, with thorough co-operation between the breeders of the blue grass, with funds raised by a nominal annual contribution of from $2 to $5 for each mare owned by each breeder, the Hughes bill in New York would not have been passed, but racing would have been continued in Louisiana and reestablished in Missouri and Illinois by this time. But the independent, individual, "unbunched" blue grass breeder had no thought of co-operation or of compact organization, so that the only efforts made by them were spasmodic and fruitless.

York to appear before the committee considering the Hughes bill. The charge was made by members of the New York Jockey Club—whether true or not we have never known—that the Jockey Club paid the expenses for going. There was no representative of the Kentucky breeders who was authorized to visit New Orleans to throw the weight of the producers of thoroughbreds against the condition under which law of New York, after which the law creating the Racing Commission of Kentucky was modeled.

It is too late now to prevent infinite damage having been done to racing, but it is not too late for such an organization to be formed and for it to be of great service, if the idea of co-operation, mutual as

UNCERTAINTY OVER LEXINGTON MEETING.

Lexington, Kv., Angust 28.—There is no one here who can at this time definitely answer the question: "Will the Kentucky Association give a fall meeting?" A week ago the general expectation was that there would be a meeting about the third week in October. At that time the impression was prevalent that the New Lonisville Jockey Club would race the first thirteen days in October at Churchill Downs and that Lexington would follow with six or seven days and immediately precede the Latonia meeting. Since then, however, Secretary Davis has made the amouncement that Louisville will ask for the dates from September 25 to October 9, and Secretary Dillon has said that Latonia will open October 1 and Chow Latonia, and that, it now appears, will have to be done if there is to be a meeting, but there are several members of the board of directors of the Kentucky Association who are not in favor of giving a meeting, at all and especially in the month of November. Among these is President J. N. Camden, and they argue that at such a time the weather would not be propitious. That is rather more of a guess than a certainty, however. There has been racing here in years past as iate as Thanksgiving Day and in some of those years the weather was delightful, while in others it was disagreeable. An other argument is that in recent years no fall meeting here has paid. Last fall the association was out of pocket all that it made in the spring. There were several untoward a dozen years or more. The majority of the members of the directorate of the Kentucky Association while there in order to come to some definite conclusion at a meeting to be held in this city about September 10.

Winner—B. m, by Lord Esterling—Miss Alice, by Vanguard (trained by P. M. Civill).

Went to post at 5:26. At post I minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Lady Fisher, much the best, met with much interference in the early running and was finally taken to the outside while rounding the far turn, caught and passed Ozana in the stretch and drew away to win cantering. Ozana was speedy, but was made entirely too much use of for six furlongs and tired badly in the last quarter. The Wrester went well, but could never get up and was hard idden all of the last quarter. Chepontuc showed early speed. Tremargo pulled up lame. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Went to post at 3:36. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Chickasaw, luckily and forwardly placed in the early running, closed up fast in the stretch and wore the leader down decisively in a game finish. Amelia Jenks, away badly, closed a big early gap on the extreme outside, but failed to get up in a fast closing effort and probably was best. Shannon outbroke and outpaced the others for five furlougs, but tired finally. Fauntleror, well up early, was crowded back on the far turn and closed an immense gap at the end. Joe Morris, well up to the stretch on the inside, failed to stay. Pretend, from a slow start, was outpaced early, but finished well. Dalhousie, never dangerous, can do better, but was hampered early. Medallion showed superior speed, was prominent for five furlougs and quit badly.

Went to post at 4:94. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second easily; third driving, Olambala, after close pursuit of the pacemaker, drew out after half of the journey had been traversed and increased his lead to the end, winning pulling up. Wintergreen, forwardly placed from the start, moved up simultaneously with the favorite, but was never able to menace him at any stage, was an easy second and not quite keyed up. Pins and Needles, well up for a mile and a half, finally tired under her weight in the last quarter of a good race. Effendi set the pace on sufferance for half of the journey and then retired precipitately and was not ready.

Went to post at 4:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Rio Grande, away slowly, steadily and gradually improved his position while being well served by the exbaustive pace, caught the leaders tiring and won going away, but probably was lucky. Dreamer, after forward attendance on the pacemaker under a pull, moved up prematurely on the last turn and succumbed unluckily to Rio Grande at the end. Queen Marguerite set a terrific pace for seven furlongs and tired slightly into a game and close up third. Gny Fisher ran well up throughout, but was not quite good enough. The Squire, after nearest and strenaous pursuit early, was squeezed out at the half, came again and loomed up menacingly midway of the stretch, but tired finally. Far West was outpaced decisively all the way. Danoscara loomed up on the far turn and quit in the last quarter.

FUTURITY CANDIDATES AT SHEEPSHEAD.

New York, August 28.—James McManus' Rocky O'Brien and James Gaffney's Barleythorpe are receiving the finishing touches of their preparation for the Futurity over the Sheepshead Bay course. Trainer Kimball Patterson worked Rocky O'Brien ix furlougs on the chute course in company with the sprinter, Adriuche, Thursday, Rocky O'Brien was ridden by Jockey Vincent Powers in the trial and carried all of 126 pounds. Right after the break the colt outran Adriuche and led her by several lengths to the judges' stand. The time of the trial, 1:15t, was considered creditable by horsemen who witnessed it. The winner of the Hopeful Stakes has always performed better in his races than in work-outs. It is the intention of trainer Patterson to give his sturdy candidate another stiff move tomorrow morning.

Trainer Frank Weir worked Barleythorpe three-quarters of a mile in 1:14t on Wednesday afternoon. Weir brought the Woolsthorpe over from Gravesend in order to have him familiar with the track over which the Futurity is run. Barleythorpe was accompanied by the selling plater, Rockstone, Barleythorpe outran his older companion. Weir is thoroughly satisfied with the work, of his charge and is of the opinion that Barleythorpe will give a good account of himself Monday.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

From time to time Daily Racing Form will publish a table of the comparative rating of those jockeys whose skill in the saddle has already been well demonstrated and of those who have not arrived but give promise of coming excellence. The handicap will divide these riders into four classifications, of which those admittedly in the front rank of their which those admittedly in the front trank of their calling will be indicated by 100, thence downward through 95 and 90 to 80, the lowest classification, from which advancement unward will come when justified by good riding.
